

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

2008 CURRICULUM VITAE UPDATE FORM

Name of Faculty Member

School or College/Department

In describing your activities during the 2008 calendar year, reflect on how they have contributed to the University's mission and vision.

I. Teaching Contribution:

Courses Taught

Enrollment

Spring 2008

Fall 2008

- (a) Improvements in teaching and learning, curriculum, or course design; participation in programs or conferences related to teaching; program or course assessment:
- (b) Advising students, thesis or dissertation supervision; informal work with students or student groups; methods for assessing and improving your effectiveness:
- (c) Recognition and awards for teaching or advising:

(d) Integration of research into teaching:

II. Research, Creative and Professional Activities:

(a) Work published, patents issued, recitals and exhibitions during calendar year 2008:

(b) Work accepted for future publication during calendar year 2008:

(c) Work submitted for publication, technology transfer disclosures, and progress made on unpublished work during calendar year 2008:

(d) Other professional activities (such as active grants, proposals submitted, editorial boards, peer review committees, invited lectures, conference papers):

(e) Recognition of published works, recitals and exhibitions (such as awards and prizes; reviews in journals; references in papers, books, symposia):

III. Service to Department, College, University, Profession and the Community:

Revised: November 5, 2008