

Fall 2017 New Faculty Events

All events beginning at noon or 12:30 p.m. will include a box lunch for anyone who RSVPs in advance. Are you free at the last minute? Bring your lunch and join us!

AUGUST

Welcome fest at Bird Library

Thursday, August 31, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Bird Library

Meet the University librarians and learn about the services they provide. There will be refreshments and giveaways.

SEPTEMBER

Relationships with students and staff

(required session for new faculty)

Thursday, September 7, 12:30 to 2 p.m. | Lundgren Room, 106 Life Sciences Complex

Hear about the University's commitment to creating a respectful, harassment-free workplace, and about the programs that help faculty fulfill their responsibilities to ensure compliance with a variety of federal and state requirements (Note: This session is 90 minutes).

Fundamentals of Syracuse assessment

Wednesday, September 20, noon to 1:15 p.m. | 202 Slocum Hall

Learn more about the University's ongoing efforts to assess academic, co-curricular, and functional excellence, and about the accreditation processes through which results are reported.

OCTOBER

Handling student situations

(required session for new faculty)

Tuesday, October 10, 12:30 to 1:45 p.m. | 304A Schine Student Center

Hear from University staff about policies, procedures, and practices for supporting students facing challenging situations.

Enhancing student engagement with instructional technology resources

Monday, October 23, noon to 1:15 p.m. | Katzer Collaboratory, 347 Hinds Hall

Learn about technology resources that are available to support your teaching. Topics will include the Blackboard Learning Management System, classroom response technologies, and Turnitin.

NOVEMBER

Grants, fellowships, and awards

Thursday, November 2, 12:30 to 1:45 p.m. | Goldstein Alumni and Faculty Center

Join staff from the Office of Sponsored Programs and from Corporate and Foundation Relations to learn about support for your research and creative work, and campus resources for connecting with funders.

Staying well: Work/life and career/life balance

Wednesday, November 15, noon to 1:15 p.m. | 204 Maxwell Hall

Faculty life can be an amazing juggling act. How do you manage to keep everything moving in the right direction? Meet with experts and share strategies on how to achieve balance and to thrive in the midst of stressful times.

DECEMBER

Celebrating and sharing your accomplishments

Friday, December 1, noon to 1:15 p.m. | Killian Room, 500 Hall of Languages

How do you ensure that your department, school, or college leaders know what you have been working toward and what you are achieving? Discuss sharing your accomplishments and learn from experienced faculty about strategies for completing your annual CV update.

Reception and celebration

Tuesday, December 12, 4 to 6 p.m. Lyman Hall Lobby

Come back to where it all began to celebrate the end of a successful semester!